

Divide and Conquer

Steps:

- divide: I into some number of smaller instances of the same problem p
- recurse: on each of the smaller instances to get the answer
- combine: the answers to produce an answer for the original instance I

Notes:

- inductive proof
- work and span by recurrences
- naturally parallel